There was but a single case before Judge Benke yesterday and that was one of drunkenness. A. Grose, a painter employed at Milton Rogers's store, on Farnham street, had his foot crushed Thursday by a large flag stone falling on it. Coup's circus leaves here for Lincoln, exhibiting there to-day and in Nebraska city the following day. It then goes to Atchison and the towns and cities of Missouri. Thomas J. Page, a private in company D, Ninth infantry, deserted yesterday, and it is alleged incidentally carried away with him some money which was intrusted to his care by a brother soldier. The military authorities are searching for the deserter.

PERSONALS.

Col. Royall is registered at the Withnell house. W. A. Cogshall, of Fremont, is a guest at the Canfield house. Mrs. P. E. Jones, nee Miss Alice McLane, is in the city visiting her parents. Chas. S. Elgutter and his mother left yesterday for the Minnesota pleasure resorts. F. H. Garrett, an attorney of Pottsville, Pa., is in the city while making a prospecting tour of the west. He is more favorably impressed with Omaha than any place he has seen in this section of the country. W. J. Anderson, of Ashland, is in the city. E. E. Corbin, of Deadwood, is at the Withnell. W. H. B. Stout, of the state penitentiary, is in town. D. H. Wheeler, of Plattsmouth, spent the day in the city yesterday. Mrs. A. J. Hanscom an daughter left yesterday afternoon for Denver. H. S. L. Sherrard was in the city yesterday, on his way from California to his home in Chicago. Hon. E. K. Valentine, congressman from Nebraska, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon. Judge Hull, of Lincoln, arrived in the city yesterday from the mountains of Colorado and Wyoming. Misses King and Russell, nieces of Gen. King, of Fort Omaha, who have been visiting in this city and vicinity for several weeks, started yesterday afternoon for Detroit, Michigan. Capt. R. H. Napier, of the English royal navy, who has for the past year commanded the ship of war Nassau on the coast of China, passed through the city yesterday over the U. P., on his way via New York to London. Rev. G. B. Young, of Philadelphia, a graduate from Princeton college and from Crozier Theological seminary, arrived yesterday and is visiting friends in the city. Mr. Young comes to accept the pastorate of a Baptist church in the state, and will start Sunday in Geneva. C. W. Collins, the contractor of the new road which the Union Pacific company is building from Granger northwest into Oregon, left yesterday for Granger. His wife and family accompanied him. He also took out from this city about twenty-five laborers to work on the road.

A LIVELY ROW

Yesterday afternoon Constable Chas. Edgerton experienced considerable difficulty in serving a writ of attachment in a suit brought by D. T. Mount against William Pickett. The writ was issued for $30, the value of a set of harness bought of Mr. Mount by Pickett. The constable probably anticipated trouble in the service for he took a man along to assist him. They proceeded to the house of Pickett in North Omaha and proceeded to levy on one of four horses there belonging to Pickett. The horse was saddled and the constable had a man on its back when Pickett came out and objected to its being taken. His protest assumed a violent form, for he attacked Edgerton in a lively manner, striking at him with a club. After some skirmishing and blows the constable got the better of the man and laid him on his back. He soon cried quits and was allowed to assume a perpendicular attitude once more. However, the idea again possessed him that he was able to cope successfully with the officer, and he tackled him, this time assisted by his wife, who appeared upon the field. The aid of the constable's assistant was then required and he was prompt to the rescue. During the melee Pickett's clothes were badly torn and the constable lost a gold sleeve-button, valued at ten dollars. The levy was at last accomplished and the horse taken. Edgerton says that resistance to legal process is becoming frequent, and he proposes to establish a precedent for future cases by arresting the defendant in this one, and making him pay a fine for assault.

THIEVES AT WORK.

They Succeed in Making a Small Haul.

Yesterday between eleven and twelve o'clock thieves entered Mrs. Parkins' residence, 1411 Howard street. All the occupants had left the house to see the show and had locked all the doors, leaving the window of the back kitchen open. The thieves tore away the mosquito netting and entered by this window. Mrs. Parkins was only away three quarters of an hour and it appears the thieves were alarmed at her return as they only took a pair of gold buttons, a chain and twenty-five cents in coin. There were two gold watches in the upper rooms but these they had not apparently discovered. The thieves rummaged a bureau and book-case containing some clothes out took none of these.

Union Catholic Library.

The board of managers of the Union Catholic Library association met in regular monthly session at their rooms last evening, and made arrangements for the monthly social, to be given one week from this evening. Cool refreshments, sandwiched with musical and literary parlour will be spread before all who desire to spend a pleasant evening. The lady members of the association are requested to meet and consult with the amusement committee at the library rooms next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The regular committees for the year are as follows: Library—Messrs. John Murphy, Charles Hanley, John Rugh, E. A. O'Brien and John Daily. Lectures and Entertainments—Messrs. W. A. L. Gibbon, T. J. Fitzmorris and Miss Stacia Crowley. Finance—Messrs. Hugh McManus, Wm. M. Bushman and John A. McShane.

CLOSING OUT.

DRY GOODS AT BUSHMAN'S. july13th

Mrs. Morrow's Remains.

Previous to the remains of Mrs. Morrow being transferred to the depot for transportation east yesterday, short religious exercises were held at the house of Dr. McClelland. Rev. John Williams offered a prayer and made a short address. The pall bearers were J. E. Boyd, Joseph Barker, C. H. Gault, Geo. A. Gilbert, John G. Taylor, E. L. Bierbower, Richard McCormick and Benjamin Gallagher.

An Example to Follow.

The finest piece of crosswalk in the city is now being laid over Capitol avenue just at the Creighton house. Any city property holders contemplating laying crosswalks would do well to stroll around to the Creighton house this evening and accept what they see there as a model of the work they intend to do.

COUP'S SHOW.

A Large Attendance and a Satisfied Public.

Coup's grand railroad menagerie and circus combined drew a great crowd in this city yesterday. Their street parade was good, and the performances, both afternoon and evening, were attended by a large concourse of people, who gave evidence of enjoying themselves immensely. Thousands of people were in the city from the country and the city people turned out in large numbers.

One of the most pleasing features of Mr. Coup's arrangements for the entertainment of the public is the imminence of his tent accommodations, another feature which gives satisfaction and inspires in the public confidence in W. C. Coup, is the fact that every attraction advertised is actually presented to the patrons of the show, and not a word of complaint or dissatisfaction is heard from the vast throng as they come forth from under the canvas at the close of each entertainment.

Among the principal features worthy of special mention were the spirited races on horseback and in chariot and other equestrian performances. The Zulus, too, excited great curiosity and amusement by their unique and barbarous songs, war dances, etc. The show was concluded with the usual concert, which was far superior to the average. As a result of this visit of Mr. Coup and his interesting caravan to Omaha, of this fact he may be assured: that he will fill his tents every time he may be pleased to come hereafter.

Irregularities in the Mail.

To the Editor of THE BEE: If Mr. Vandervoort is such a great worker in the mail service for the benefit of Omaha and the west in general, what is the reason that the Wabash mail, coming from St. Louis, that gets in at the other side of the river on time at 10:55 a. m., is held there and not sent over to Omaha until three o'clock in the afternoon, when a Chicago train is late. He should remember that there are merchants and business men in this place who do a great deal of business with St. Louis that suffer on account of this neglect. SUFFERER.

The attention of a BEE reporter was called to some beautifully engraved gold headed cans at Edholm & Erickson's. Their solid gold headed cans sell from $9 upwards.

Lots of new potatoes at 14-5t WM. GENTLEMAN'S.

A. CRUICKSHANK & CO. Continue their Special Sale of LAWNS! LAWNS! At 5c, 7c, 10c, 12c and 15c. Those at five cents are admitted by every one to be the cheapest goods ever shown in Omaha. They cannot be duplicated again at that price. BARGAINS FROM NEW YORK. We are opening daily various lots of Job Goods from New York, and can assure the public we never before offered such value. DOMESTICS! PRINTS! Removed to the first floor with a full assortment of New Goods at popular prices. j13-2t A. CRUICKSHANK & CO.

The Apollo Springs mineral water for sale at J. W. Murphey & Co's, corner of Fourteenth and Douglas streets, is one of the best mineral waters ever introduced in Omaha. The bad effects of water in hot weather may be avoided by using the Apollo water. j13-2t

Mr. Joseph H. Hengen, the well known bootmaker, has returned to Omaha and has reopened a boot and shoe shop on 12th street between Farnham and Douglas, back of Braas's clothing house. He will be pleased to meet his friends and patrons who will find him fully supplied with all the materials for making first class boots and shoes upon short notice. The firm name is Hengen & Bergquist. j13-4t

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Local Occurrences in That City.

Things That Interest People in Dog Days.

Everything of Interest That Has Transpired.

LITTLE SQUABBLE. Two farmers from the country got into an altercation opposite the post-office yesterday afternoon. They were immediately taken in charge before any blood was spilled by Chief of Police Field, who walked them up to Esquire Burke's headquarters to answer for disturbing the peace and quietness of the city. The cause of the misunderstanding was this: It seems that one of the men, in a joking way, made a remark that the other took exception to, claiming it reflected in some manner upon his honor. He immediately advanced to the party who had given him, as he supposed, an intentional insult, and grabbing him by his beard, demanded an apology. He got it in a way that came near paralyzing him, for in his grab he uprooted quite a quantity of his opponent's chin beard, who in return struck him a blow in the face. After a full hearing of the case Judge Burke fined the party who imagined he was insulted and dismissed the case as to the other.

A THEFT. Ring Bros., proprietors of the New York bakery on Main street, had about $25 stolen from their money drawer yesterday morning at about 10 o'clock. The proprietors were in the bakery at the rear when the money was taken. The money was in a bag. There was beside some loose change in the drawer which was not taken. The thief evidently grabbed in a hurry.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS. The following transfers of real estate were filed in county recorder's office to-day, as reported by J. W. Squire & Co., abstract and loan agents, Council Bluffs: Caroline S. Wright to Frederick Schultz, land in e ne 17, 74, 43—con. $500; w. d. C. C. Despain and wife to Ira Hendricks, lots 7 and 8, block 4, Street 4, city—con. $250; w. d. Dennis Murphy and wife to Anna E. Neister; pt lt 4 o. p. city—con. $400; w. d. Jacob Dony and wife to Geo. W. Freeman, lot 7, block 17, Grimes' add. city—con. $100; w. d.

BLUFF BREVITIES. There was a heavy fog yesterday morning. The sidewalk on North Main street, between Broadway and the bridge, is being raised and rebuilt. The scarcity and high prices of poultry in the markets indicates that poultry raising must be very profitable. Why don't more engage in it? As it is the markets never seem to be fully supplied. The rising of garden produce and fruit ought to be encouraged and stimulated as much as possible. Farmers will find the raising of such produce very profitable, and it will afford the people of this city a good full market at reasonable prices. Imported fruits and vegetables are necessarily higher priced than those raised at home, while they are generally not near so fresh and good. L. A. Casper's fine gardens on Pierce street shows what can be accomplished in market gardening in this locality. There is hardly finer soil for gardening in the world than this. H. S. Stevens has been engaged as traveling agent and solicitor for the Council Bluffs Insurance company. The company have undoubtedly secured the services of an efficient agent in Mr. Stevens. The excavation for J. J. Brown's large brick block on South Main street is now completed and ready for the foundation. The brick work will be commenced at once. Mrs. W. H. M. Pusey, accompanied by her son and daughter, are at Manitou, Col. They write in glowing terms of Manitou as a summer resort. Burnham & Tulley will shortly erect a brick block on Main street, a few doors south of the postoffice. W. W. Wallace contemplates ornamenting his residence property, which he is now building, in a handsome and costly manner. He proposes having a fountain or two. The waterworks will enable many citizens to indulge in the same luxury! Mr. Grass, the contractor has nearly completed a large double building on south Sixth street. J. W. Damon estimates that he will have about 5,000 bushels of apples at his home place on Frank street. This is only about a quarter of a crop. Mr. Damon feels sure that apples of the right varieties can be raised here with great success. The St. Paul Pioneer-Press of the 15th, says concerning the Milwaukee line to Council Bluffs. There is some talk of bringing the line directly into Council Bluffs instead of around the town into the Union depot. If the road is brought directly into town a cut of seventy feet will be needed through one divide. Mr. A. Stewart, expressman, a few evenings ago found a suspicious looking stranger prowling around his barn. He instituted a watch, and about 11 o'clock saw the man enter his stable, untie and lead forth his best horse. He immediately ordered the stable to "let go of that horse," and seizing an axe made chase. The man left the horse and escaped. "The street railroad track in its present condition is simply a nuisance, and it would be becoming in the city council to order it planked and put in such condition that teams and carriages can cross it without endangering life and property. That turning table in the middle of Broadway and those cars left standing over night on the principal thoroughfares of the city should all be removed to some side street or private grounds. The streets of the city belong to the public and it is improper for pitfalls and scarecrows to monopolize them to the inconvenience of the public. No other city would permit public streets to be thus monopolized, especially when life is jeopardized thereby. It is asserted that horses are frightened frequently when driven by the cars on Upper Broadway, and the prediction is often made that a bad smashup is likely to occur if some prompt action is not taken for the protection of the public." Greenville Dodge, the little son of N. P. Dodge, died at Clear Lake on the 12th inst. The Nonpareil of Thursday has this to say of the Council Bluffs street railway: Sixty miles of the west end of the Milwaukee road will be completed in about six weeks. Finley Burke has returned to his new home in Orange City. W. J. Hancock and family left last evening for a visit to Aurora, Ills. Mrs. Hancock's old home. John Peterson yesterday complained before Judge Abbott that some one had stolen his watch and chain and that he suspected a colored man by the name of Geo. Williams, who works for J. T. Stewart. A warrant was issued and placed in the hands of Constable McFadden. He found Williams at the stable of Mr. Stewart with a face as innocent as grandfather's clock. When Mr. McFadden broached the subject of a silver watch he denied any knowledge of it whatever, but the end of the chain hanging out of his pants pocket snared him at once and he surrendered the property McFadden took him before Judge Abbott and he will have his trial to-day. Will the moral editors never get through talking about that Zulu princess? The moral editor of THE BEE has a prescription for both the moral editors. It is the motto of the Knights of the Garter: "Honi soit qui mal y pense"—Evil to him who evil thinks. A long haired man, partly crazy and partly drunk, created a sensation on the street yesterday by claiming he was Giteau, the would-be assassin of President Garfield. The regular meeting of the city council takes place to-day. Bell & Hall command a large country trade. Judging from the large amount of produce they are receiving the farmers must be doing a thriving business in general produce and dairy products. Home enterprise should be encouraged by patronizing home manufacturing, especially when they produce a first-class article. It is a well-known fact that the beer produced at Geise's brewery is strictly first-class, being absolutely pure and good. Mr. Geise has spared no pains to make it so. He has recently had sunk, at great expense, an artesian well for the purpose of procuring perfectly pure water. His patrons appreciate his efforts to furnish a perfectly pure article, and that among the best consumers and dealers of this city there is quite a popular diversion in favor of using Geise's beer and to the exclusion of imported articles, which are inferior and less pure and fresh.
